MISSION STATEMENT

Honor All Former Prisoners of War; Remember and Never Forget Those Missing In Action Heroes and the Families Who Seek Their Return.

More than 82,000 are still listed as Missing in Action and Unaccounted for since World War II

Background & Vision

- Established in 2016 as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization
- Located at the former Naval Air Station Cecil Field – Jacksonville, Florida
- Lease approved by the Jacksonville City Council Members (June 2017)
- Mayor Lenny Curry Signed ordinance (August 2017)
- Existing Memorial:
  - Originally dedicated on September 11, 1973
  - Honoring 16 POW/MIA Pilots from Vietnam & Desert Storm Conflicts
- Establish a National destination for military remembrance (this will be the only National Memorial that recognizes ALL those Missing in Action and unaccounted for)

Chapel of the High-Speed Pass

- Originally opened in 1963
- Formerly known as the “Cecil Field Memorial Chapel”
- Received Historical Landmark designation (OCT 2018)
- Re-Dedication back to Chapel (MAR 2019)
- Installation of Missing Man Pew (pictured)
- Open for memorial services and ceremonies

Gold Star Families Memorial

- Memorial dedicated in February 2021
- Only Gold Star Families Memorial in Northeast Florida
- Honors those service members who lost their life while serving
- Honoring and remembering all POW/MIA service members is our organization's mission
- We support the fullest possible accounting of all MIAs
- Once a service member is accounted for, their family member then becomes a Gold Star Family Member

POW/MIA Museum

- Establish a national destination for ALL branches of the U.S. military
- Recognize and tell the stories of those who were Missing in Action and those still unaccounted for
- Educate the public on the Prisoner of War (POW) and Missing in Action (MIA) issue through exhibits, videos, artifacts and memorabilia
- Partner with organizations, associations and institutions that further the importance of our military history
